II. VP Holland reviewed the Student Services Committee duties and the Student Organizations Policies and Procedures.
III. The committee discussed the applications of the five prospective organizations the committee would be reviewing.
IV. The committee elected a chair – Sean Eckrote
V. Interview of prospective student organizations:
   a. Kappa Kappa Psi: The committee asked the purpose of the organization, and discussed the fact there was a previous chapter of the organization on the CU campus which had been dormant for about five years. Dr. Lambert stated they were trying to re-establish due to many requests. The committee thanked the advisor and representative for coming and informed them they would be contacted with the committee’s decision.
   b. Sigma RhoMeo Fraternity, Inc.: The committee asked the purpose of the organization, the committee asked the meaning of the name and the canes that the members carry. The committee wanted to be sure the canes would not present a problem on campus. The committee thanked the representatives for coming and informed them they would be contacted with the committee’s decision.
   c. Fellowship of Christian Athletes: The committee asked the purpose of the organization, and wanted to know when the organization was going to meet and who would be the SGA representative with the variety of different sports the members are involved in. Z. Naifeh stated that if the organization was approved he would help them with their SGA representative information. There was discussion about adding Robert’s Rules of Order to cover anything not covered by their constitution. The committee thanked the advisor and representative for coming and informed them they would be contacted with the committee’s decision.
   d. Cameron Catholics: The committee asked the purpose of the organization, the committee stated that their constitution seemed to cover all areas. The committee thanked the representatives for coming and informed them they would be contacted with the committee’s decision.
   e. Cameron International Film Club: The committee asked the purpose of the organization, the committee asked the advisor what types of films they would be showing and if they would have to pay to show the films, and the advisor said she had checked and as long as the film was for educational purposes they would not have to pay. The committee thanked the advisor and the representative for coming and informed them they would be contacted with the committee’s decision.
