Department of Foreign Languages

George Stanley presented information with regards to adding the following four classes to the Department of Foreign Languages.

1. 1113 ARBC  Beginning Modern Standard Arabic I
2. 1223 ARBC  Beginning Modern Standard Arabic II
3. 4153 INDN  Intensive Studies in Indonesian I
4. 4163 INDN  Intensive Studies in Indonesian II

Motion was made by Suzanne Crawford to allow the Department of Foreign Languages approval to list the classes shown above in the university catalog. The motion was 2\textsuperscript{nd} by Danny McGuire.

After a very brief discussion, a vote was taken and it passed without opposition.

Department of Communications

Tony Allison presented information with regards to dropping specific classes, adding new classes, and changes to classes presently offered in the Department of Communications.

Classes to be dropped.

1. COMM 3013 Parliamentary Procedure
2. COMM 3523 Interviewing
3. COMM 4633 Communication Assessment and Consulting
4. JOUR 3122 Yearbook and Magazine Production
5. JOUR 3131 Yearbook and Magazine Lab

Motion was made by Margery Kingsley to allow the Department of Communications to drop the classes listed above. The motion was 2\textsuperscript{nd} by Ted Snider.

After a very brief discussion, a vote was taken and it passed without opposition.
Classes to be added.

1. COMM 3833 Conflict Management
2. RTV 3353 Producing the Documentary
3. RTV 4941-3 Special Topics
4. RTV 3931-3 Workshop
5. JOUR 3233 Advanced Newspaper Reporting and Design
6. JOUR 3991-3 Workshop

1. Motion was made by Suzanne Crawford to allow the Department of Communications to add the class 3833 COMM with the stipulation that the term “interdisciplinary” would be stricken from the Course Description.
   The motion was 2nd by Margery Kingsley.

After some discussion, a vote was taken and it passed with a single opposition.

2. Motion was made by Ted Snider to allow the Department of Communications to add the class 3353 RTV.
   The motion was 2nd by Margery Kingsley.

After a brief discussion, a vote was taken and it passed without opposition.

3. Motion was made by Margery Kingsley to send back and designate the course 4941-3 RTV as two separate courses. A class for individuals (e.g. Special Problems) and a class for groups (e.g. Special Topics).
   The motion was 2nd by Carolyn Kinslow.

After some discussion, a vote was taken and it passed without opposition.

4. Motion was made by Ted Snider to allow the Department of Communications to add the class 3931-3 RTV.
   The motion was 2nd by Margery Kingsley.

After a brief discussion, a vote was taken and it passed without opposition.

5. Motion was made by Ted Snider to allow the Department of Communications to add the class 3233 with modification: change the course number to the appropriate number in the course description.
   The motion was 2nd by Suzanne Crawford.

After a brief discussion, a vote was taken and it passed without opposition.

6. Motion was made by Ted Snider to table the “Request to Modify Courses” by the Department of Communications until the next meeting.
   Reason: To seek information to determine which of the classes warrants the classification—Liberal Arts and Sciences Credit
   The motion was 2nd by Margery Kingsley.

After some discussion, a vote was taken and it passed without opposition.